Welcome to 'In Touch' -

The magazine of Cheltenham United Reformed Church, a joint pastorate of the three United Reformed Churches in Cheltenham, sharing a Minister, Revd Maz Allen. The three churches work very closely together, sharing this magazine, the website and all activities.

St Andrew's United Reformed Church is in the Montpellier district of Cheltenham town centre. A former Presbyterian church founded in 1885, it became United Reformed on unification in 1972. Recent renovations now offer an impressive facility, meeting the needs of 21st century Cheltenham.

Prestbury United Reformed Church is in the heart of Prestbury village on the northern edge of Cheltenham. A former Congregational chapel built in 1866, becoming United Reformed on unification in 1972.

The Church in Warden Hill is a Local Ecumenical Partnership (LEP) between the Anglican (St Christopher's) and URC communities of Hatherley and Warden Hill in the south of Cheltenham. Ministry is shared between the URC Minister, Revd Maz Allen, and members of the Anglican South Cheltenham Team Ministry. Both the Anglican and URC buildings are regularly used for worship.

For other information about the Church in Warden Hill please see 'The Lantern' or visit www.tciwh.org.uk

Preacher: Revd Maz Allen

All welcome.

Our Minister Writes:

Dear Friends,

At the time of Jesus and throughout the lives of the Apostles, the Roman Empire, which was the political power in their lives, celebrated ‘triumphs’. When a general returned to Rome after a great land or sea victory there was a massive triumphal procession through the streets of Rome. The victorious general’s chariot was decorated with wreaths of laurel announcing that he was the victor.

The early Christians did not hang up crucifixes or crosses in their homes as we might. When they portrayed the cross it was shown as a triumphant sign with a laurel wreath around it. Christ had died but had risen victorious – Christ the victor over death.

This picture shows the victor’s laurels surrounding the CHI-RHO sign - Greek shorthand for Christ. (www.romeacrosseurope.com)

So this picture says ‘Christ, the victor, has triumphed over the cross’.

Everything about Easter Day speaks of triumph. It is so important a day for us that, having prepared for it for forty days, the next forty days are spent celebrating it, until we celebrate Christ’s Ascension and Pentecost.

There is a rhythm to the Christian year and we are about to reach the pinnacle of joy and thankfulness, because, for us, Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Alleluia!

Happy Easter!

St Andrew's Charity for March: KENYA PROJECTS

Since it was established in 2001 the 'Kenya Projects' has made it possible for the St Stephen's Home in Embu to develop into a very successful home and school for disadvantaged, orphaned and abandoned children. At the present time the home is looking after over 90 children and young adults. Many thousands of pounds have been raised and donated by the fund to carry out building work and furnish workshops and schoolrooms and to provide proper teaching.

Every two years a group of volunteers from the UK has visited the home and taken part in some of the physical work of developing the home. In addition to the St Stephen's home 'Kenya Projects' has also helped other local charities, notably a local home for disabled children and the health centre at Gatondo. This year's target is to raise at least £15,000, to fund a complete rewiring of the St Stephen's Home, provide new shoes for over 90 children and young adults, and also set up a small wedding dress hire shop, for which there is a local demand. The volunteer group going out this year will be taking some dresses with them.

The 'Kenya Projects' is a continuing success story: some of St Stephen's former pupils have now graduated and moved on into careers, including one ordained minister. Several hundred children have been taken off the streets and given adult care and formal education; other local facilities have benefited too. The work continues and funds are still needed. There are still projects to tackle; for example a future project is to fund the addition of a second storey to two staff flats at the Utugi Boys Home.

The volunteer group will be visiting Embu this year from 28th December to 11th January 2017, and it is planned that this will be the last group visit. Further information can be obtained from Maz or Ann Standing at St Andrew's or Julie Jefferies at Prestbury.

Footsloggers

In 2008 Roger Little had the idea of having a monthly URCIC Walking Group. The name Footsloggers was invented by Bob Alger, although the walks are not really 'slogs' they are steady strolls in the beautiful countryside surrounding Cheltenham. Walks are organised by different people each month and are approximately five miles in length ending at a hostelry with lunch and good company.

The dates of the walks for 2016 are:

19 th February	12 th August
21 st March	12 th September
15 th April	21 st October
23 rd May	14 th November
10 th June	9 th December
11 th July

All are welcome to join us both young and not so young. Just get in touch with Tim Odell on Cheltenham 243398 or by e-mail at t_odell@blueyonder.co.uk, or Jenny Evans at jenny21evans@hotmail.co.uk

Town Centre Walk

On Monday 25th January 19 walkers set off from Pittville Pump Rooms to walk to the Railway Station via the Park and the Honeybourne Line. It was interesting to see familiar landmarks from completely different angles!! Many of the group visited the Winston Churchill Memorial gardens for the first time and learned about its history.

Refreshments were enjoyed at the Green Coffee Machine on Queen's Road before walking back to church where lunch was served in Montpellier Hall. We were joined by three others so twenty two Footsloggers were present for the A G M.

Dates for walks in 2016 were arranged and walk leaders were appointed.

On behalf of the Footsloggers we would like to thank Jenny Evans for stepping into the breach to undertake the administration for all matters to do with our walks in the future. We are very grateful that we can look forward to continued success with our walks.

Tim Odell

When is a Potter not a Potter?

Have you noticed how difficult it is to buy a cup of coffee these days? So many decisions. Black or white is just the start. Large, medium or small? Cappuccino? Latte? American? Skinny? Milk or cream? Sugar or sweetener? By the time you've decided all that your blood pressure is so high you aren't drink the stuff. It's bad enough when you're being served by a person, probably, or do I mean improbably, called a barista. (Some clever Dick thought that one up, but it still sounds to me like some legal wizard in a black gown and a wig).

Being served by a machine is a whole new chamber of horrors, turning the mildest of us into energetic Luddites with murderous tendencies. Even if you're successful in getting what you actually want, you'll be served a plastic cup and a plastic thingy that defies identification as a spoon. Much more civilised surely is a decent cuppa in a china cup and saucer. It's good to know then that we've got them in our churches: no not plastic thingies, cups and saucers - plates and stuff too. But where do they come from? Yes I know, that cupboard in the kitchen, but where else, and who designs and makes them and how? Important questions eh, and we should be told. So we've invited John Andrews to the Forum on Tuesday March 8th to tell us all about "Church and Chapel Crockery". And there's no need to bring your own spoon!

Talking of pottery leads me neatly to another sort of pottery, Beatrix Pottery! And no, I don't get them out of Christmas crackers! Continuing the story she began last autumn, Ann Grant concludes her story of "Beatrix Potter's London Life" on Tuesday 22nd March. It seems Beatrix Potter hasn't finished yet. At least one new book has been found and possibly another. The real thing lost in a drawer somewhere? Spirit writing? Fakes by Mrs B Potter of Railway Cottages, East Cheam? Keep an eye on this. Better still, come and listen to Ann and hear the real story.

We meet at 2.30 pm in the Garden Room at St. Andrew's Church. And there's a cup of tea afterwards - in a cup and saucer of course - with a real spoon!

Eco Church – Green Hearts

On Sunday 14th February we joined the Climate Coalition's 'Show the Love' campaign, which aims to demonstrate how much we all care for things that could be affected by climate change.

Sunday's service, led by Bob Alger, took as its theme 'Loving and Planting'. As part of the service a short film was shown – 'I wish for you' – from the Climate Coalition. This five-minute film, starring Jeremy Irons and Maxine Peake, tells the story of a grand-daughter who finds an old letter from her grandfather, all about the world he hoped she would grow up in. In the 'Together' section of the service, Carol Drummond talked about our use of the world's resources and what we were doing as a church. We encouraged people to think about what they might do themselves and to write this down on green slips of paper given to them.

Wednesday Women had made green hearts to wear and to give on Valentine's Day when they met in February. The donations from the felt green hearts and knitted hearts stuffed with treats to eat raised over £60. With this, we are able to purchase three Valentine's Day gifts from Christian Aid's Present Aid both of which contribute to their climate change fund.

Wendy Outram kindly provided some stunning photographs to display in the church during the service to remind us of the beauty of the world around us. Some of Wendy's photographs are also included in the displays in the Link Gallery along with green heart bunting. Special thanks to Bob, Alison and Laura who helped decorate the link gallery on Saturday.

Thanks to everyone for supporting our Green Hearts event and for their generosity.

The Climate Coalition is a group of over 100 organisations including Christian Aid who campaign for action on climate change. You can find the film 'I wish for you' on You Tube. 4 million people had watched this as of Wednesday 10th February.

Senior Club at The Church in Warden Hill

We welcomed Peter Berry again on 13th January, a very popular speaker and committed train lover. His presentation was entitled 'Roof of the World'. He had been to Darjeeling with seven friends to see the Trans-Himalayan small gauge railway. This small steam train, only the size of a transit van, runs along the side of the mountain and hill cart road for 30 miles. Children travel to school on it every morning. Five people operate it, a sand box is on the front bumper and a man sits either side shovelling sand onto the line to help the wheels grip the steep incline. One person breaks coal up, another is the fireman and then there is the driver. Usually on their holidays, Peter and his friends stay on the train, but as this one is so small they stayed in a hotel in Darjeeling, built in 1905. To their surprise they had a television showing Coronation Street dubbed into Hindi. The view from the balcony revealed 28,000 foot high snow covered mountains. The houses in Darjeeling are built on terraces on the mountainside. It is a very poor area with no running water or sanitation. Every December and January houses have to be rebuilt, as the three month monsoon washes some away. Darjeeling has 20,000 inhabitants.

The bazaar was wonderful, exciting smells and sights, fruit, vegetables and spices were in abundance. It was here that Peter had a snake put round his neck. The snake charmer thought it was hilarious but Peter looked petrified.

Peter loves meeting local people and he was made very welcome at a Tibetan Monastery high in the mountains. He learnt that small boys of about six join the monastery never to return home.

Peter is so passionate and enthusiastic, he just inspires us all.

We welcome new members, any Wednesday at 2.15pm, for fun, friendship entertainment and refreshments.

From the Editor

You may or may not have noticed that something extraordinarily important in the life of the Church took place on Friday 12th February 2016. Pope Francis met Patriarch Kirill, the head of the Orthodox Church. This is the FIRST time that the leaders of these two churches have met in a 1000 years.

This should give us all HOPE.

A Prayer for Reconciliation

“We pray for reconciliation between churches. Break down the inertia which keeps us apart when the original causes of division no longer matter. Help us to judge whether present differences are sufficient to be allowed to obscure the unity we have in Christ. And may unions of Churches take place in such a way that they do not become the cause of new divisions.

May the Christ who once reconciled Jew and Gentile, slave and freeman into one body continue to break down the walls which divide us”.
